New London Office For North

North P&I Club has opened an office in London to represent interests in this important maritime hub and to support ongoing diversification.

The new office will be headed by Savraj Mehta, who has recently been appointed to the role of Chief Commercial Officer, with specific responsibility for assisting with delivery of North's commercial strategy and market development.

The London office will also be the home of North's owners' P&I fixed premium insurance product, trading through Sunderland Marine, which is due to launch in early October.

Based in the heart of the maritime community, North's London base and fixed premium product offering will enable Savraj and the team to work more closely with and respond to fast-changing market opportunities.

The office is located at the following address:

1st Floor
5 Lloyd's Avenue
London
EC3N 3AE

T: +44 (0) 20 70 523915

More information will be available on our new fixed premium product in due course.
